The Louisville Horse Show

Genuine Treat For Those Who Love Fine Horses.

The Louisville Horse Show this year will afford a genuine treat to those who love fine horses and excitement. It will be held in the splendid Armory building, having a seating capacity of more than 10,000, each evening during the week commencing Monday, October 10th. Heretofore the exhibition has been made up of fine horses exclusively, but this year there will be an innovation. Miss Lucille Mulhall and sister, Miss Mildred Mulhall, of Oklahoma, have agreed to come to the show and bring a string of wild bronchoes. These young ladies are the daughters of one of the Cattle Kings of the West and learned to ride during the "round up" on his ranch. They are not only the most accomplished horsewomen in the world but are beautiful girls, the former being the original of Reid's famous painting, "The girl from the Golden West." The horses which they ride are known as the "bellowing" broncho type and the stunts they do are hair raising. In spite of the fact that these horses, every minute or two, jump straight up in the air, five or six feet, and come down with legs perfectly rigid and back arched, that they rear up and fall backwards, that they kick so high as to practically stand on their heads, and adopt every other device known to a devilish horse, these girls seem to have no trouble in riding them.

So far as the horse show is concerned, it will be remarkable in that six of the greatest stables of show horses in the world will, for the first time, compete in the same ring. These are the horses of Alfred G. Vanderbilt, of New York, J. W. Harman, of New York, Paul A. Sorg, of New York, Miss Loula Long, of Kansas City, and Lawrence Jones, of Louisville. They will have all of their crack horses at the show and will be in the ring each night. Miss Long and Mr. Sorg have never before brought their horses to Kentucky. Miss Long is one of the richest girls in America and handles her own horses and Mr. Sorg's stable is even larger than Mr. Vanderbilt's. In addition, all the noted saddle horses in this State will be there.

The boxes and seats will go on sale in a few days so as to give people from out of the State an opportunity to make their reservations in advance. The prices of boxes for a single performance are $12 and $15, general admission fifty cents and reserved seats $1.00. Any communication addressed to the Secretary of the Horse Show, Equitable Building, Louisville, Ky., will be promptly acknowledged and reservations made for any performance.

Corp Milk Cows, Then Churn.

Remarkable story of dairying in water is vouched for by Superintendent Norman, of the George W. Westinghouse estate at Lenox, Massachusetts: "The blooded Jersey cows of Mr. Westinghouse recently ceased to give milk. Watch was kept, and when the cows walked into a pond it was noticed that the pet carp in the pond seized the opportunity to gorge themselves with milk. To prove just where the milk went, employees of the place cast hooks and lines into the water. The first carp to bite fought gamely and thrashed about in the water fully fifteen minutes before he was landed. When cut open there were no traces of milk, but instead several tiny balls of butter, the product of the churning incident to the struggle of the carp."

Dairying In The South.

E. K. Slater, Secretary of The National Dairy Union, St. Paul, Minnesota, writes:—

Dairying is growing in popularity among the farmers of the Southern States. They are learning that the dairy cow can do for the cotton grower of the South what she has done for the wheat grower in the North, i. e., increase the fertility of the soil in addition to making most satisfactory returns for labor and money expended for feed.

The United States Department of Agriculture has been giving particular attention to this question in the Southern States the past few years and a great service has been rendered. A great impetus has been given to the dairy movement until now there are thousands of influential dairy men singing the praises of the dairy cow and demonstrating by actual experiments that dairying is the salvation of that section of the country.

Certain politicians, in order to create an issue by which they might retain office, have greatly retarded the development of the dairy industry in the cotton growing States by creating the impression there that the interests of the cotton grower are opposed to those of the dairyman. It has been brought about in this way: Cottonseed oil is used in the manufacture of some kinds of oleomargarine. This has been used to prejudice the cotton producer against any and all kinds of legislation which in any way regulates or restricts the sale of oleomargarine.

A careful estimate compiled from government reports shows that through the sale of cottonseed oil which was used in the manufacture of oleomargarine last year, the cotton growers of the South actually received one and one-half cents for every acre planted to cotton!

Forevery dollar's worth of cotton seed oil used last year in making oleomargarine, one hundred and seven dollar's worth of butter was produced in these same cotton growing States.

These are facts which every cotton producer should consider before lending his support to any movement which is intended to retard the growth and development of the dairy industry in the South.

Cutting Scrope.

Walter Geary, colored, engaged in a cutting affray with his wife, Lucy Anderson Gray, last Tuesday night at the home of her sister, Millie Coleman, in the northern part of town.

They have only been married a short time, but Geary has been very cruel and has beaten and threatened his wife frequently; so it is reported, but on this occasion he came in on her at her sisters and without warning began cutting and attempting to kill her. Her left breast was cut open to the bone and a large cut across the left side and several deep stabs and cuts in the shoulder and back.

Geary, after the cutting, attempted to escape, but was captured at the depot by Charlie Main, deputy police, and lodged in jail. The woman is in a dangerous condition, but by careful treatment may recover.

Geary is a strange negro who came here only a short time ago from the South and bears a bad reputation.

Depressed.
"I am afraid Bliggins has met with reverses."

"What makes you think so?"
"He goes about with a gloomy look, saying there is no such a thing as disinterested friendship. That is almost a sure sign that a man has been trying to borrow money."—Exchange.

Don't Drink On Train.

The following is the new law in full:—

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Section 1. That any person who shall, in or upon any railroad locomotive, passenger coach, interurban car, street car, or upon any vehicle commonly used for the transportation of passengers, or in or upon any common carrier, or in or about any railroad depot, station, ticket office, waiting room, or platform, drink any intoxicating liquor of any kind; or if any person shall be drunk or disorderly in or upon any railroad passenger coach, interurban car, street railway or in or upon any vehicle commonly used for the transportation of passengers, or in or upon any common carrier, or in or about any railroad depot, station, ticket office, waiting room or platform, such person or persons shall be deemed to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than ten ($10) dollars nor more than fifty ($50) dollars, or imprisoned not less than ten nor more than thirty days, or both so fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court or jury: Provided, that the foregoing section shall not apply to any person drinking intoxicating liquors purchased by him, in or upon any buffet or dining car operated by a common carrier in this Commonwealth.

Section 2. Any person violating the provision of Section 1 of this act, shall be tried in any court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the offense shall have been committed.

Section 3. It shall be the duty of every railroad conductor of a steam, interurban or street railway, and station; depot, or ticket agent of said railway when he sees any person violating the provisions or any of them of Section 1 of this act, to at once notify the nearest or most convenient sheriff, constable, town marshal or policeman, of the county in which the offense is committed, giving him such description by name or otherwise as will enable the officer to identify the offender, as also giving him the offense, and it shall be the duty of the officer so notified to arrest without delay any such person without any other evidence of his guilt to take him before the nearest magistrate to be proceeded against in the manner provided by law. If any such officer shall willfully or negligently refuse to make the arrest he shall be fined not less than $10 nor more than $50 for each offense and it shall be the duty of the conductor or agent giving the officer the information upon which to make the arrest to prosecute the delinquent officer.

RECITAL

Given by Miss Nellie Mae Suter at Union College Quite a Success.

Those who attended the elocutionary recital, given last Tuesday night at Union College by Miss Nellie Mae Suter were well repaid as the evening was made very profitable, entertaining and interesting.

Miss Suter is indeed an artist in her profession and her readings and recitations were pronounced first-class and her ability to inject expression into her work made it all the more interesting.

Miss Suter has been engaged to teach expression and elocution this year at Union College and the management is indeed fortunate in procuring such a talented young lady as Miss Suter for this position.

DR. HITCHCOCK

Well Received at His New Home.

The following clipping was taken from one of the Catlettsburg newspapers which shows that Dr. Hitchcock and family have been royally received in their new home:

"Installation of Rev. Hitchcock, preached two excellent sermons which greatly delighted his congregation, Baptist people attend the night service having omitted services at their own church.

"The Rev. Dr. Hitchcock, the newly appointed pastor of the Panola street Methodist Episcopal Church, preached a couple of most excellent sermons yesterday, as an introduction to his pastoral work. The audience both morning and evening, was quite satisfactory, and the sermons were very highly enjoyed. At the evening service the congregation was joined by the congregation of the First Baptist Church, Rev. Mr. Kelley having extended the courtesy of not holding any evening service in his church in order that his people might attend the services at the M. E. Church.

"The members of Rev. Hitchcock's congregation are greatly pleased with their new minister and the year's work is entered upon with every indication that it will be very successful.

"The following invitation has been issued by the Ladies of the M. E. Church:

"The ladies of the Panola Street Methodist Episcopal Church Cordially extend an Invitation to the members and friends of the Church to the Reception Given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Ferguson Friday, September 30, 1910 7:30 p. m. In honor of first, because it is a necessity—that is the rule in magazine buying of America's intellectual aristocracy. It is indispensable to the busy business man, who must keep abreast of the times, because it gives him the real news of the day in concise, readable form; it is invaluable to the thinking man, who demands only the truth and then draws his own conclusions, because it gives him just plain, straight facts.

It is helpful to the whole family. In it you will find a monthly picture of men and affairs by Dr. Albert Shaw, in his comprehensive editorial, "Progress of the World;" a clever cartoon history of the month; book reviews; the gist of the best which has appeared in the other magazines and newspapers of the world; pithy character sketches; and interesting articles on the all-important topics of the day. Authoritative, non-partisan, timely and very much to the point, "It's a liberal education," is the way subscribers express it.
